

2023 JOSEPH P. TONETTI JR. SCHOLARSHIP

Mission

To provide funds by way of a scholarship, which will be used for education through an accredited educational program. This scholarship, offered by the Connecticut Chapter of the Club Management Association of America, is for students who have expressed an interest in working in the private club or hospitality profession, and need financial assistance.

Scholarship Awards

The Connecticut Chapter of the Club Management Association of America is comprised of approximately 160 professionals employed by private clubs throughout the state of Connecticut. Our organization is a chapter of the Club Management Association of America, and we offer various services to our membership, such as continuing education and national communication.

Amount of Scholarship

The Association will award at least one scholarship each year. The amount of the scholarship will depend on the financial condition of the Chapter. An applicant or recipient may re-apply in subsequent years.

Who Should Apply

Based on merit and need, The Joseph P. Tonetti, Jr. Scholarship is awarded annually to students who have expressed an interest, in a career in the private club or hospitality industry. Students must be presently employed part time, full time, or seasonally by a private club within Connecticut.
